Align our intentions

- Inclusive systems leadership
- Whole city engagement
- Buy-in from strategic delivery partners and boards

Focus our resources

- Collective power of public, private, voluntary organisations and our communities
- Catalyse change for systemic city challenges
- Attract new investment to the city

Sequence our actions

- Review of city strategies, projects and infrastructure
- Coordinate and prioritise actions at a city scale to tackle the right challenges at the right time

Access to new perspectives and innovative thinking

Shared aspirations / obligations / interdependencies

Access to wider leadership, power bases and spheres of influence

It's about added value...

Alignment of focus, effort and resources on a few intractable problems (not business as usual)

More effective and transparent 'business as usual'

Removal of barriers to progress and perverse incentives— gain and risk share

Our collective £ - is there a better way to spend our collective resources to address those problems?

What else?
That's for us to determine...
